The plant ingredients provide unrefined carbohydrates that together with the carminative aromatic plants, promote digestive well-being.

The added probiotics have a beneficial effect on intestinal microflora, reducing the population of many harmful intestinal bacteria.

HIGH DIGESTIBILITY

With the best natural ingredients, high proportions of fresh meats and a limited content of selected cereals, always wholegrain.

We prepare this recipe following our exclusive SLOW COOKING process: the ingredients are cooked very slowly at low temperature, in their own juices and in limited production batches to retain maximum nutritional quality and achieve exceptional digestibility.
